How Election Was Stolen

Analysis Shows Obvious Fraud By Computer in States of GA, PA

Woody Jenkins
 Editor

CENTRAL — Election Day in the United States, held this year on Tuesday, Nov. 3, 2020, was really a series of 51 separate elections — one in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. The vote total in each determines how the electoral votes of that state or district will be cast in the Electoral College on Dec. 14, 2020.

Thirty of those states and more than 2,000 counties have something in common. The citizens of those areas vote on voting machines provided by Dominion Voting Systems with software from Smartmatic Vote Counting System.

While supporters of President Trump cast about for evidence of vote fraud in the form of unsigned ballots, mishandled paper ballots, and evidence of “retail” vote fraud,

President Donald Trump

Former Vice President Joe Biden

While the mainstream media has crowned former Vice President Joe Biden as “President-elect,” the facts on the ground are quite different, at least in two swing states that have been called for Vice President Biden — Georgia and Pennsylvania.

In those two states, a careful analysis of the data shows that both states voted for President Trump and the election was stolen.

It was fraud by computer. Since Dominion and Smartmatic have control of the voting machines, the software, and the reporting of the results, it should be up to the owners and officials of those two entities to explain how it was done. But it was done, as will be shown.

Unraveling this mystery begins with The New York Times. After polls closed on Election Day, The Times begin to report the results hour after hour. The coding for that data is still online, and we have downloaded it in case it is taken down.

The data from The Times shows the time, expressed as UTC, or Universal time, which is Greenwich mean time in England.

It also shows the totals for Trump and Biden, Trump’s lead, and then new votes for Trump and Biden as each change in the results was uploaded. Then it shows something very significant: The increase or decrease in votes.

Fake Votes Were Reported in Multiples of 4,800 Votes in GA, 6,000 in PA in Identical Fashion

proof of massive computer-based vote fraud is right before the nation’s eyes. It is going unnoticed in this hyper-partisan atmosphere.

Ironically, The New York Times, a vocal critic of the President, has recorded the fraud for all times, even though they have not reported it.

Millions of Mail Ballots Made It Impossible to Track Which Votes Were Being Tabulated

CENTRAL — After every election, the Central City News publishes precinct-by-precinct voting returns to let our readers know how the people of Central voted. In preparation for this issue, we did that once again. However, we found the data to be virtually useless.

Nearly 100,000 voters in East Baton Rouge Parish took part in early voting or voted by mail. Those votes are not attributed to the voter’s home precinct but simply lumped in with other votes from across the parish. As a result, the only thing we can report on a precinct basis would be the votes cast on election day itself, which is a far cry from reality.

Additional Votes for Joe Biden received in multiples of 4,800 = 104,984

AN AMAZING CONSISTENCY IN REPORTED RESULTS — At 16:35 UTC on Wednesday, Nov. 4, 2020, President Trump was leading Joe Biden in the State of Georgia by 103,997 votes. Over the next seven days, Biden picked up 104,984 votes from 16 vote dumps. Amazingly, all of the vote dumps were either 4,800 votes each or a multiple of 4,800. The same thing happened in Pennsylvania, where a series of 44 vote dumps in multiples of 6,000 each resulted in 347,786 votes for Joe Biden.

Central Mayor David Barrow Says Thibodeaux Rd. Work Coming in '21

Central Will Play Key Role in Electing Next Mayor, Metro Council

David Barrow
Mayor, City of Central

CENTRAL — Thibodeaux Rd improvements are coming in 2021. Other roadway projects are being planned

As part of planning for the future of our roadways, I am pleased to announce several projects that are being planned and one that will be starting in early 2021. Our sales taxes are up, and an appropriate use of these funds is towards infrastructure improvements on our roadways.

First, I am pleased to announce that improvements to Thibodeaux Road will start in early 2021. This nearly $1 million project will involve reconstruction and overlay of 1.375 miles of Thibodeaux Road between Morgan and Planchet roads.

The existing nine-foot wide lanes will be increased to 10 feet to allow for more room on the roadway. Several cross drains under the roadway will also be replaced during the construction. The work will be done by R.J. Daigle & Sons

Central Mayor David Barrow
Contractors.

The engineering firm of Forte & Tablada, Inc. prepared the plans and will monitor and inspect the work. This is a Federal Aid project, and LA DOTD will reimburse the city 80 percent of the construction costs. Construction is expected to last 90 days.

I have been working on planning several other roadway projects around the city with the assistance of the Capital Region

Planning Commission and Forte & Tablada, Inc.

- These include:
- Hubbs Rd overlay and bridge replacements (Denham Road to Highway 64).
  - Proposed roundabout at Sullivan Road and Joor Road.
  - Intersection improvements at Greenwell Springs and Morgan roads
  - Planchet Road improvements (Frenchtown Road to Thibodeaux Road).

Several weeks ago, I submitted a State of Louisiana Capital Outlay request of nearly $6 million for the Wax Road extension (Sullivan Road to Hooper Road) with the support of Sen. Bodi White.

This project is on our City of Central Master Transportation Plan and involves extending Wax Road from the dead-end in Central Square to Hooper Rd just east of Shoe Creek Drive.

This new roadway will provide a residential collector bypass of Sullivan Road and a possible connection to Huntley Place to provide an alternate entrance for their subdivision that many residents have requested.

A portion of this roadway will be constructed by the developers of the Settlement at Shoe Creek where it crosses their property to provide another access point for the development.

This is the first step in obtaining funding for this project, and the City of Central will provide matching funds as well in the future.

The four-laning of Hooper Rd from Blackwater Road to Sullivan Rd is being handled by the City-Parish through the MovEBR program. Roadway design plans have been completed, and I am hopeful that right-of-way acquisitions will begin within the next year.

Utility relocations and sewer line installations are underway along Sullivan Rd, and the actual roadway construction should be let for bids in September 2021.

Chris Hester a Great Choice for Seat On State 1st Circuit Court of Appeal

CENTRAL — The Central City News is pleased to endorse City Judge Chris Hester for the First Circuit Court of Appeal in the Dec. 5 runoff election.

Judge Hester is a man of integrity and a fine judge. We are certain he will do a fine job representing all of us.

Judge Hester was elected city judge in November 2018.

His experience handling civil and criminal matters, including traffic, small claims, and evictions, from the City Court bench has given him an understanding of the root issues of many problems facing our community. Before becoming judge, Chris spent the majority of his career working as an assistant district attorney with the East Baton Rouge Parish District Attorney's Office.

He previously served as section chief of a trial section and held the positions of chief homicide prosecutor and section chief of the Violent Crimes Unit. He handled thousands of cases from misdemeanors to murders over a nine-year period.

Hester earned the endorsement of East Baton Rouge Parish District Attorney Hillar C. Moore, III, former East Baton Rouge Parish District Attorney Doug Moreau, the Louisiana Association of Business & Industry, the Baton Rouge Area Chamber FuturePAC, Baton Rouge Union of Police, and the Baton Rouge Association of Firefighters.

As the chief homicide prosecutor, Chris saw the biggest challenges — habitual offenders in the criminal justice system. He recognizes that these violent crime offenders often start with a misdemeanor handled in Baton Rouge City Court or District Court. This experience combined with his time as a City Court judge has cultivated Chris' passion for solving serious issues that plague our community and prepared him to run for Court of Appeal.

Judge Hester is committed to bringing a firm but fair perspective, tireless work ethic, and extensive courtroom experience to this important position as he seeks to build a better Louisiana. He understands the real impact crime has on our parish, but he knows the difference an effective justice system can make when committed to serving the people. The safety and security of East Baton Rouge Parish families will always be his top priority, he said.

"We need experienced judges who have handled cases from both sides of the bench who are ready to go from day one. The stakes are simply too high at this level of our judicial system," Hester said. "Judges need to be proven, fair and trustworthy. I'm the only candidate with judicial experience in this race and I've spent my career in the courtroom."

Chris was born and raised in Baton Rouge. He is a graduate of Catholic High School, LSU, and LSU Law School. Chris is a lifelong conservative Republican. Before joining the EBRDA Office, Chris began his law career at Watson, Blanche, Wilson and Posner, a law firm practicing primarily in the area of medical malpractice defense.

Chris is active in the community as the head coach of the 8th grade basketball team at St. Aloysius Catholic School, Baton Rouge and Louisiana State Bar Association, and a committee member at First United Methodist Church. He is married to Emily Burris Hester, and they have two young children.

Judge Hester said he hopes to transition his role from City Court to the First Circuit Court of Appeal, while still continuing to seek justice for the people of East Baton Rouge Parish.

Georgia: When Ballots from Nowhere Arrived in Multiples of 4,800 Votes

cease in the lead for Trump after the new dump of votes occurred. Therein lies this story.

Late on Wednesday, Nov. 4, at precisely 16:35 UTC, The New York Times reported President Trump was leading in Georgia by 103,997 votes. However, a new group of votes was being dumped. That one dump reduced Trump's lead by 18,563 votes. Remember that number.

Three hours later, another dump occurred. This one reduced Trump's lead by 4,656 votes. Remember that number. Thirty minutes later, another dump reduced Trump's lead by 4,685 votes. An hour and a half later, another dump reduced Trump's lead by 9,323 votes. An hour and a half later, another dump reduced Trump's lead by 9,509 votes.

Are you beginning to see a pattern?

The pattern is that all the dumps were multiples of 4,800.

But it didn't end there!

An hour and 26 minutes later, another dump reduced Trump's lead by 9,501 votes. At that point, Trump's lead had been reduced to about 48,000 votes.

Then an hour and 8 minutes later, a vote dump reduced Trump's lead by 9,606 votes.

An hour and 34 minutes later, a vote dump reduced Trump's lead by 4,827 votes.

Forty minutes later, a vote dump reduced his lead by 4,861 votes. Then 2 hours and 26 minutes later by 4,863. Four hours and 47 minutes later, a vote dump reduced Trump's lead by 4,864 votes. Biden was coming on strong!

Trump's lead was now only 9,625 votes. It was 10:53 UTC on Nov. 5.

Bear in mind that while all this was happening, Trump was gaining votes or holding his own if you exclude the vote dumps.

Georgia was hanging in the balance, but not for long. Five hours later, a vote dump cut Trump's lead by 4,891. Five hours after that, a vote dump cut Trump's lead by another 4,913. At 21:58 UTC on Nov. 5, less than a thousand votes separated the candidates.

An hour later, a vote dump reduced Trump's lead by 4,916 votes, and two hours and 32 minutes later, the vote dump reduced Trump's lead by 4,953 votes.

The election was tied with each candidate having 2,447,591!

At 22:00 UTC, Nov. 6, a vote dump cut Trump's vote by 4,969, and Biden led 2,454,662 to 2,449,693, a lead of 4,969.

The final vote dump came at 23:52 UTC on Nov. 7, when Biden's lead widened by 4,983! The former Vice President had made an amazing comeback and was now leading by 10,000 votes!

Of course, the statistical possibility of Biden picking up multiples of 4,800 votes 16 times during this four-day period would be firmly in the impossible range. But it happened.

How did it happen? There is no possible explanation except vote fraud — fraud by manipulation of computer programs.

This is all the more obvious in view of the fact the average of 4,800 or multiples thereof not only happened by adding votes to Biden but also by subtracting votes from Trump. The computer had to be programmed to produce net votes for Biden without being obvious. And they would have succeeded, if The New York Times had not kept such timely records and if somebody had not done some calculations.

The fraud in Georgia is all the more significant when one considers that exactly the same thing happened in Pennsylvania, except that the computer was programmed to add 6,000 votes at a time instead of 4,800.

In both states, the "votes" counted were not the votes of real people. They were simply added digitally, which a complete recount of both states would detect.

At 16:35 UTC on Wednesday, Nov. 4, The New York Times reported President Trump was leading in Georgia by 103,997 votes. Then the Times' continuous voting updates showed ballots arriving for Joe Biden in multiples of 4,800 votes over and over again. In some vote dumps, the President actually lost votes. This unprecedented consistency in vote totals continued until Biden had gained 104,984 votes in multiples of 4,800. At the same time, in Pennsylvania, Biden benefited from vote dumps in multiples of 6,000 votes, totalling 324,000.

Pennsylvania Also Suffered Vote Fraud But by Multiples of 6,000 or 12,000

porting how Central voted. With roughly half of all votes being reported as part of a parishwide total, it is impossible to determine where most votes are coming from.

In larger states such as Georgia and Pennsylvania, which had millions of early votes and mail-in ballots, the problem was even greater. The public was told for days after the Nov. 3 election that “votes are still being counted.” However, as new vote totals were uploaded, neither the public nor the media knew where those votes were from.

Fear generated by the virus created an acceptance of the widespread use of mail ballots, but there was no corresponding effort to insure that those ballots were being collected and counted honestly and correctly. On the contrary, some states including Louisiana, actually reduced normal security safeguards on mail-in ballots.

In the aftermath of the Nov. 3 vote, the media never told the public how or why it was necessary to still be counting ballot days after Nov 3. The confusion and uncertainty of the “new normal” in elections led to acceptance of votes being uploaded without knowing where they came from.

On Election Day, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Donald Trump took an early and commanding lead.

By 22:54 UTC Nov. 4, President Trump was leading former Vice President Joe Biden by roughly 285,000 votes. However, that began to disappear as someone, somewhere began to dump “votes” into the system. There were 44 separate vote dumps, resulting in 347,768 votes being put into the system — all in increments of 6,000, 12,000, or 18,000 additional net votes for Joe Biden.

The remarkable consistency of the votes added to Joe Biden’s totals has shocked even Democratic office holders who have seen The New York Times’ election data.

It was quite a feat for Joe Biden to come back from an election night defeat by 285,000 votes to a 46,000-vote margin of victory four days later. Election fraud has been around a very long time. However, election fraud by computer is something relatively new.

This election is proof that much more work will be necessary to insure free and fair elections in the future.

Giuliani: We Have Someone in Dominion

Rudy Giuliani
Attorney for President Trump

“We have a person inside Dominion who has come forward and signed an affidavit that Dominion observed the hundred thousand phony ballots that were brought in at four o’clock in the morning on Nov. 5 that were all Biden ballots.

“They appeared by every measure to be phony ballots, since they were brought in the back door, they were not in the proper containers, they were sticking out of paper bags and cardboard boxes.

(The Dominion insider) was told they were ballots that were needed to ‘catch up to Trump’ because Trump was ‘too far ahead’. When they were counted, they were all counted in favor of Biden. The woman from Dominion testified under oath that she saw not a single vote for Trump from among these, and she was there for four or five hours. She said it appeared to her to be horribly corrupt, and when she reported it, nothing was done about it. She was told it wasn’t any of their business.

So that’s why I feel pretty good about our lawsuit in Michigan. There’s a 100,000 vote fraud right there (snaps fingers).

Do we have other witnesses who are somewhat reluctant to come forward right now? Yes. We can probably corroborate this three or four times.

So I think they’re finished on that. I think that’s something that actually happened, they brought a hundred thousand votes in, they were all Biden votes.

There was not even another vote for another

Rudy Giuliani

Democrat. And it was intended because they were panicked because Trump was ahead by much more than they anticipated.

The same thing happened in Pennsylvania. It’s inherently impossible to make up for (a margin of) 800,000 votes at 64 percent of the votes tallied).

You have to cheat to do it. Philadelphia has cheated in every election in the last 60 years. Philadelphia has more people who have gone to jail for election fraud than probably anywhere else in the country. And it’s all Democrat election fraud, because it’s been controlled by a corrupt Democrat machine for the last 60 years.

So when they fell behind by 800,000 votes, they went into a state of panic. So they had to shut out all the Republicans. They had to bring in all the phony ballots.

We never got to examine over 600,000 ballots, which makes them all unlawful — Illegal, unlawful, fraud, fraudulent.

I doubt the (Supreme) court will allow them to count those ballots. I’m sure the state legislature will not accept those ballots in order to certify electoral votes.

Rev. Spell Asks Supreme Court To Protect Freedom of Religion

CENTRAL — Rev. Tony Spell of Life Tabernacle Church in Central last week filed an application for relief with U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Samuel Alito.

Rev. Spell is one of the few pastors in America who has held in-person church services throughout the coronavirus pandemic. As a result, the pastor has been twice arrested, fingerprinted, put in prison, held in contempt of court for refusing to agree not to have church, placed under house arrest, and fitted with an ankle bracelet. The governor has made it his personal crusade to shut down the church, and Mayor-President Sharon Weston Broome called on residents not to attend the church.

Through it all, Pastor Spell has continued to hold worship services three times a week, more than 100 services since March.

Central High senior Grant Dunn has been named to the All-Academic Team

Central Wildcats Hope To Solidify Playoff Slot

CENTRAL — The Central High Wildcats (7-1) will host Live Oak (5-2) this Friday night in the final District 4-5A game of the regular season. Central's only loss was a narrow one to No. 5-ranked Scotlandville, another 4-5A rival. That game went down to the wire.

The season has been abbreviated. Most teams will play eight games or less before playoffs next Friday.

The Central City News will broadcast Friday night's game between Central High and Live Oak live from Wildcat Stadium. The game will be hosted by announcer Ken Bush. To watch the game, go to Central City News on Facebook starting at 7 p.m. Friday.

On Thursday, the Central City News will broadcast Istrouma at Broadmoor beginning at 7 p.m.

Firehouse Barbecue's Free Thanksgiving

WATSON — It has been a difficult year for Danielle Bunch of Firehouse Barbecue in Watson. She purchased the restaurant June 1 and shortly thereafter began being harassed by Gov. John Bel Edwards, who ordered her shut down for not requiring customers to wear a mask.

However, Ms. Bunch has stood strong and refused to require masks. The district court enjoined the state from enforcing its order.

The people of Watson and Central stood with Ms. Bunch and now she plans to say Thank You.

She's inviting everyone who is alone for Thanksgiving or needs a good meal to come to the restaurant on Hwy. 16 near WalMart between 12 noon and 4 p.m. on Thanksgiving. Everything is free. If you'd like to help, call her at 504-430-7714.

The services have ranged in size from 400 to 3,000 people, and Rev. Spell says that in that time no one has died or been hospitalized.

The application for injunctive relief was filed by Rev. Spell's attorney Jeff Wittenbrink, who also represents Danielle Bunch, who owns Firehouse Barbecue in Watson. She has also been harassed by Gov. John Bel Edwards.

Justice Alito spoke to the Federalist Society last week and said he is concerned because religion is becoming disfavored in this country. He said he is worried over the loss of religious liberty.

Jeff Wittenbrink said the justice's recent remarks indicate the court may be ready to bring a halt to the harassment of churches that began with the pandemic in March.

If Justice Alito were to agree to hear the case, it would indicate he thinks the entire court would likely favor Life Tabernacle's position.

Mr. Wittenbrink said Rev. Spell's case could be the kind Justice Alito would like to hear.

Rev. Spell told the Central City News, "Our case could be the most important on the First Amendment in the 244-year history of this country. If a governor can shut down churches and forbid them from worshipping, then the First Amendment really doesn't mean much. The Constitution says no law can be made prohibiting the free exercise of religion, and there is nothing more basic than the right to go to church. I believe Justice Alito will rule on our behalf. Our case has all the elements they would look for. We have been arrested, harassed, and discriminated against. They have provided far more protection to WalMart than to the church."
